

APPLY TO BECOME AN APPROVED WHOLESALE VENDOR FOR THE PA WILDS CONSERVATION SHOP AT KINZUA BRIDGE STATE PARK

Step 1 Open Call.

Eligible producers can submit information via the online application to be considered as a vendor in the gift shop. Eligibility requirements are listed below.

Step 2 Buyers' Pack.

(invite only)

PA Wilds Center staff will invite selected vendors (via email) to submit a buyers' pack for further consideration.

Step 3 Orders Placed.

(invite only)

Once buyers' packs have been reviewed selected producers will be contacted and a buying meeting will be scheduled to place an initial order.

ONGOING

We're in startup mode so please be patient as we continue to refine our buying and communications processes and systems. Curating our inventory is an ongoing process. If you submitted your information and were not contacted the first time around, that does not mean you won't be selected in the future.

VENDOR ELIGIBILITY:

Preferred Terms.

We purchase our inventory (no consignment) to stock the gift shop and preference will be given to vendors that can extend Net 30 terms.

Wilds Cooperative Members.

Vendors must be Juried Artisans or Creative Service partners in good standing. Not a member?

For info on how to join visit:

PA Wilds Conservation Shops are gift shops run by the PA Wilds Center for Entrepreneurship (PA Wilds Center), a 501(c)(3) nonprofit. Our physical and online stores focus on locally-made and value-added products so that customers can take home a piece of the Pennsylvania Wilds while making a difference. These purchases have a ripple effect on the local economy while also supporting our nonprofit mission, which is to work with partners to grow the region's nature and heritage tourism industry as a way to create jobs, diversify local economies, inspire stewardship and improve
